

1. Group Composition

- Each group has 2 members.
- Each group is assigned 2 research papers.
- Round 1: One member presents the first paper.
- Round 2: The other member presents the second paper.

2. Presentation Overview

- Duration: 20-25 minutes (max 30 minutes)
 - 15-20 min presentation
 - 10-15 min Q&A
- Goal: Demonstrate your understanding of the assigned paper and explain it clearly to classmates.
- Focus: Emphasize key ideas rather than every detail.

3. Suggested Presentation Structure

1. Introduction: Title, author(s), publication year, and significance.
2. Background: Key concepts and prior research.
3. Research questions: What the study investigates.
4. Methodology: How the study was conducted (mention tools/technologies if relevant).
5. Findings: Summarize main results clearly.
6. Commentary: Provide your evaluation, insights, or critiques.
7. Interactive quiz: Prepare 4 short questions to engage classmates:
 - a. 2 from the presenter
 - b. 2 from the other group member

Tentative Rubric (10 points; 5% of Final Grade * 2)

Criterion	Pts	Exemplary	Proficient (-1 pt)	Developing / Missing (-2 pts)
Organization & Clarity	3	Presentation is well-structured, clear, and easy to follow.	Generally clear but occasionally disorganized or rushed.	Unclear, disorganized, or hard to follow.
Content Understanding	3	Demonstrates strong grasp of paper's key ideas and contributions.	Shows general understanding with minor inaccuracies.	Limited understanding or key points missing.
Engagement & Delivery	2	Speaks confidently; engages audience effectively.	Delivery adequate but somewhat monotone or unengaging.	Reads directly from slides or lacks engagement.
Visuals & Timing	2	Slides are visually clear, well-paced, and within time limits.	Slides mostly clear; minor pacing or timing issues.	Slides cluttered, unreadable, or presentation over/under time.
